THE following Catalogue of Graduates of the University of Edinburgh has been prepared in compliance with a resolution of the SENATE. It includes a chronological list of the MASTERS OF ARTS, from the year 1587, and of the DOCTORS OF DIVINITY and DOCTORS OF LAWS, from about the beginning of the last century, being the earliest notices of any such degrees having been conferred. These Lists are continued to the present time. A Catalogue of the Medical Graduates, from the year 1705, appeared as a separate volume in 1846.

The Book of Laureations, which has furnished the chief materials for the present volume, commences with the National Covenant of 1580, which long continued to be subscribed by the Professors and Students. In reference to this practice Professor Craufurd, in his History of the University, has stated, "In the end of 1587, the Nationall Covenant was subscribed in the Colledge be Mr Rollock and Mr Narne, Maisters of the same, and be Mr John Crage, the King's Minister (who had framed the draught thereof), and be Mr James Hamilton, Minister, who, during the banishment of Mr Lawson, and Mr Balcanquall, was brought in to preach in the citie. . . . An ordinance was also passed, that all who should take degrees in the Colledge, sould subscrybe the same." The same Author informs us that,—"In August 1587, Maister Robert Rollock did laureat the first classe which had passed under his charge in the Colledge of Edinburgh, after every one of them had subscrybed the Covenant. They were to the number of 48 [47], among whom were many able wits, namely, Mr Charles Ferme, Mr Philip Heslope, Mr Henry Charteris, and Mr Patrick Sands, who were thereafter Regents, and the two last came to be Principals of the Colledge."[1] It will be observed, that other formulas were substituted at different periods, to which the signatures of the Graduates in Arts are continued in this Register, with some kind of regularity, until the latter part of the seventeenth century. At an early period, designations after many of the names have been added, probably by some of the Professors from their personal knowledge. These additions, which serve to identify various Students who had taken their degree, are printed in Italics.

It had been customary, from the close of the sixteenth to the commencement of the last century, previous to the day of graduation, to print the THESES, which the Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts were called upon to defend in their public disputations. The names of the Students were annexed, along with that of the Regent or Professor, under whom they had completed their course of philosophical study. Of these annually printed Theses, about seventy have been discovered and collated; and they have proved of essential service in regard to many names obscurely written in the Register, which could not otherwise have been easily deciphered. They also furnish several additional names; but for the sake of distinction these are enclosed within brackets.

In preparing the following Catalogue, other sources have also been carefully examined, such, for instance, as the Register for Matriculations, which commences in the year 1627; and likewise the various lists of contributors to the University Library. Such contributions, when not in the form of books on which the names of the respective donors were written, consisted of fees paid at the time of graduation, which formed a separate fund for the purchase of books, in the name collectively of the graduates in each particular class.

[1] History of the University of Edinburgh, from 1580 to 1646, by Thomas Craufurd, A.M. Edinb., 1808, 8vo.

In the early part of the last century, partly arising from a change in the course of study, by the appointment of separate Professorships, the practice of taking degrees in Arts fell into general disuse. After the year 1730, when the minutes of the SENATE commence, the names of Graduates were frequently there recorded instead of the Laureation Book, but in general, for nearly a century, in an imperfect manner. Every endeavour has, however, been made to render the following Catalogue as complete and accurate as the existing materials would admit.

For the purpose of rendering this volume of greater importance, there is here subjoined a list of the Principals, Regents, and Professors, in the University, since its foundation in 1583 to the present time. This, for the most part, has been prepared from a careful examination of the Records of the Town Council of Edinburgh, the Patrons of the University, as the most authentic source from which the dates of such appointments can be ascertained.

December, 1858.

A SCHORT AND GENERALL CONFESSIOUN OF THE TREW AND CHRISTIAN RELIGIOUN ACCORDING TO GODDIS WORD.

WE ALL, and euerie ane of vs vnderwrittin protest, That after lang and dew examinatioun of our awin consciences in materis of trew and fals Religioun, ar now throuchlie resolued in the treuth, be the Word and Spirite of God; AND THAIRFOIR, We beleif with our hartis, confes with our mouthes, and subscriue with our handis, and constantlie affirmis befoir God and the whole warlde, That this is onlie the trew Christian faith and religioun, pleasing God and bringing saluatioun to man, quhilk is now be the merey of God reueled to the warld be the preaching of the blissed Euangill; and is receaued, beleued, and defended be mony and sindrie Kirkis and Realmes, bot cheiflie be the Kirk of Scotland, as Goddis eternall treuth and onlie ground of our saluatioun. TO THE QUHILK Confessioun, and forme of Religioun we willinglie aggrie in our consciencis in all poyntis, as vnto Goddis vndoubted treuth and veritie grounded onlie vpon his writtin word: And thairfoir we abhorre and detest all contrarius religioun and doctrine, but cheiflie all kynd of Papistrie, in generall and particular headis, euen as thay ar now damned and confuted be the Word of God and Kirk of Scotland: BUT IN SPECIALL, we detest and refuis the vsurpit authoritie of that Romane Antechrist vpon the Scriptures of God, vpon the Kirk, the ciuill magistrates and consciences of men; all his tyrannous lawis, maid vpon indifferent thingis aganis our christiane libertie; his erroneous doctrine aganis the sufficiencie of the written word, the perfectioun of the law, the office of Christ, and his blissed Euangell; his corrupted doctrine concerning originall sinne, our naturall inhabilitie [and] rebellioun to Goddis law; his blasphemie against justifica[tioun] by faith onlie, our imperfect sanctificatioun and obedience to [Goddis] law, the nature, nombre, and vse of the holie Sacramen[tis]: WE DETEST his fiue bastard Sacramentis, with all [his] rites, ceremonies and fals doctrine added to the ministratioun of the trew Sacramentis, without the Word of God; his cruell [jud]gement against infantis departing without the sacra[ment]; his absolute necessitie of Baptisme; his blasphemous opinioun of transubstantiatioun, or real presence of Christis bodie [in] the elementis, and reccauing of the same by the Wicked, or [bodies] of men; his dispensationes with solemned aithes, perjuries, [and] degreis of mariage, forbidden in the Word; his crueltie aga[inst] the innocent deuorced: WE ABHORRE his deuilishe [messe,] his blaspbemous preistheid; his prophane sacrifice for the [sinnes] of the dead and the quick; his canonizatioun of men, [calling] vpon angellis, or saintes departed, worschipping of ima[grie], relicques, crosses, dedicating of kirkis, altaris, day[es], vowes to creatures; his purgatorie, prayer for the deade, praying, speaking in a strange language; his processiones and blas[phemous] Letanie, his multitudes of aduocates, or mediatouris; with his [mani]fald ordouris, and auricular confessioun; his desperate and [uncertain] repentance; his generall and doubtsom faith, his satisfactiones [of men] for thair sinnes, his justificatioun by workis, his opus [operatum,] workes of superogation, [merites, pardons, peregrinations and stations]: WE DETEST his propbane holie water, baptizing of belles, coniuring of spirites, crossing, sayning, anoynting, conjuring, hallowing of Goddis bolie creatouris, with the superstitious opinioun joyned thairwith; his wardlie monarchie and wicked hierarchie; his thre solemned wowes, with all his schauelingis of syndrie sortes; bis erroneous and bloodie Decreis maid at Trent, with all subscriuers and appruiferis of that cruel and bloodie Band, conjured aganis the Kirk of God. And finallie we detest, all his vane allegoreis, rites, signes, and traditiones, broght in the Kirk without or aganis the Word of God, and doctrine of this Reformed Kirk. TO THE QUHILK WE joyne ourselues willinglie in doctrine, faith, religioun, discipline[1] and vse of the holie sacramentis, as liuely membris of the same in Christ our heade, promising and swearing, by the GREAT NAME OF THE LORD, that we shall continue in the obedience of the doctrine of this Kirk, and shall defend the same according to our wocation and power, all the dayis of our liues, vnder the payne conteyned in the Law, and danger both of bodie and soule in the day of Goddis fearefull Judgement.
